Questions

1. What comfort is there for the Christian in knowing that our God has spoken?

2. How does it bring peace that our lives are not constantly filled with trying to guess what God has said?

3. Similar to how the disciples gave up their cloaks, what are the things you have been convicted about needing to sacrificially give?

4. What is blocking you from rejoicing and praising in the Lord with the multitude of disciples? How does pondering anew the wonderful works of our Lord remove the blockage?
